

First Day of the Last Month Midi (Themeless)

Brian Callahan

ACROSS

1. World Cup champ Wambach and comedian Elliott
6. Nintendo fighting franchise, casually
11. Some online horror stories
13. One who's more carnivore than omnivore, say
14. Tin ___
15. They prescribe _e_
16. Longtime sports agent Tellem who now works for the Detroit Pistons
17. Loses control, in a way
19. Grp. that was first clued in a 1967 NYT crossword as "Club for brainy ones"
21. Lead-in to Balls
22. Ape shit?
23. F.H.A. insured loans
25. "I know it's midnight, but I'm bored. Let's talk."
27. Pitcher's pitch on why your team should sign them, briefly
28. Hallux, for one
30. Star Wars, initially
31. Some hamper contents, casually
34. Reproofs
35. "_____ can." (Campaign chant that seems like it's from decades ago...even though it's ONLY been a decade and a half)
36. Like a fuzzy navel?

DOWN

1. High places

1	2	3	4	5		6	7	8	9	10
11					12
13
14				15				16
17			18			19	20
	21						22
23				24		25				26
27				28	29			30
31			32				33
34
35						36

© 2022 Olio Grids - All Rights Reserved

2. Slow down or pause
3. Carrying, in a way
4. "The power of ___" (important part of a growth mindset coined by psychologist Carol Dweck)
5. Floods with junk
6. Anagram of 5-Down...or what you might do when you're flooded with junk
7. Ruin
8. Bulgogi tacos, e.g.
9. Class valedictorian, probably
10. With Barbera, co-producer of "The Smurfs"
12. Paycheck letters
18. Ruminant mammal sung about in a classic Rodgers and Hammerstein number
20. Cruciverbalist's favorite ambient musician
23. Perfect time for a massage
24. Jule who composed "Let It Snow! Let It Snow! Let It Snow!" and "Diamonds Are a Girls Best Friend"
25. 1983 film that won Barbra Streisand the Golden Globe for Best Director
26. In a snit
29. Angers affirmative
32. Lug
33. Sixth-century year that saw the start China's Liang dynasty